Living Waters: Reflecting on the Source and Summit of Life

Presented by Alanna Mitchell, Dennis O'Hara, & John McCarthy, S.J.

All terrestrial life has come from oceans. Now the life of the oceans is in peril; what does this mean for life itself? What does this mean for the Creator who breathed across the waters? What does this mean for the destiny of humanity and the rest of creation? Join a group of scientists, theologians and fellow inquirers on World Water Day to contemplate these important questions!
